

“...cultural teachings at YMCA have been really important to me.”

Kia Ora my name's Tatiana, I'm half Maori, half Samoan. I come from a really large Whanau so cultural teachings at YMCA have been really important to me. It teaches us about not only how we're connected to each other but also how we live in a community and that we have to respect one another.

TATIANA'S STORY